

Youngsters declare the season officially open at Southampton, L. I. Left to right: Beverly, Willis and Morgan James, Edmund P. Rogers, Jr.; Nora Potter, Howard Rogers, Peggy and Colton Wagner and Billy and Alice Wall.

Underwood & Underwood.

Above — Mrs. Rosita Forbes, famous woman explorer, in the gown which she wore at the Ascot races in England. Her hat, more than three feet in diameter, created a sensation.

E. O. Hoppe.

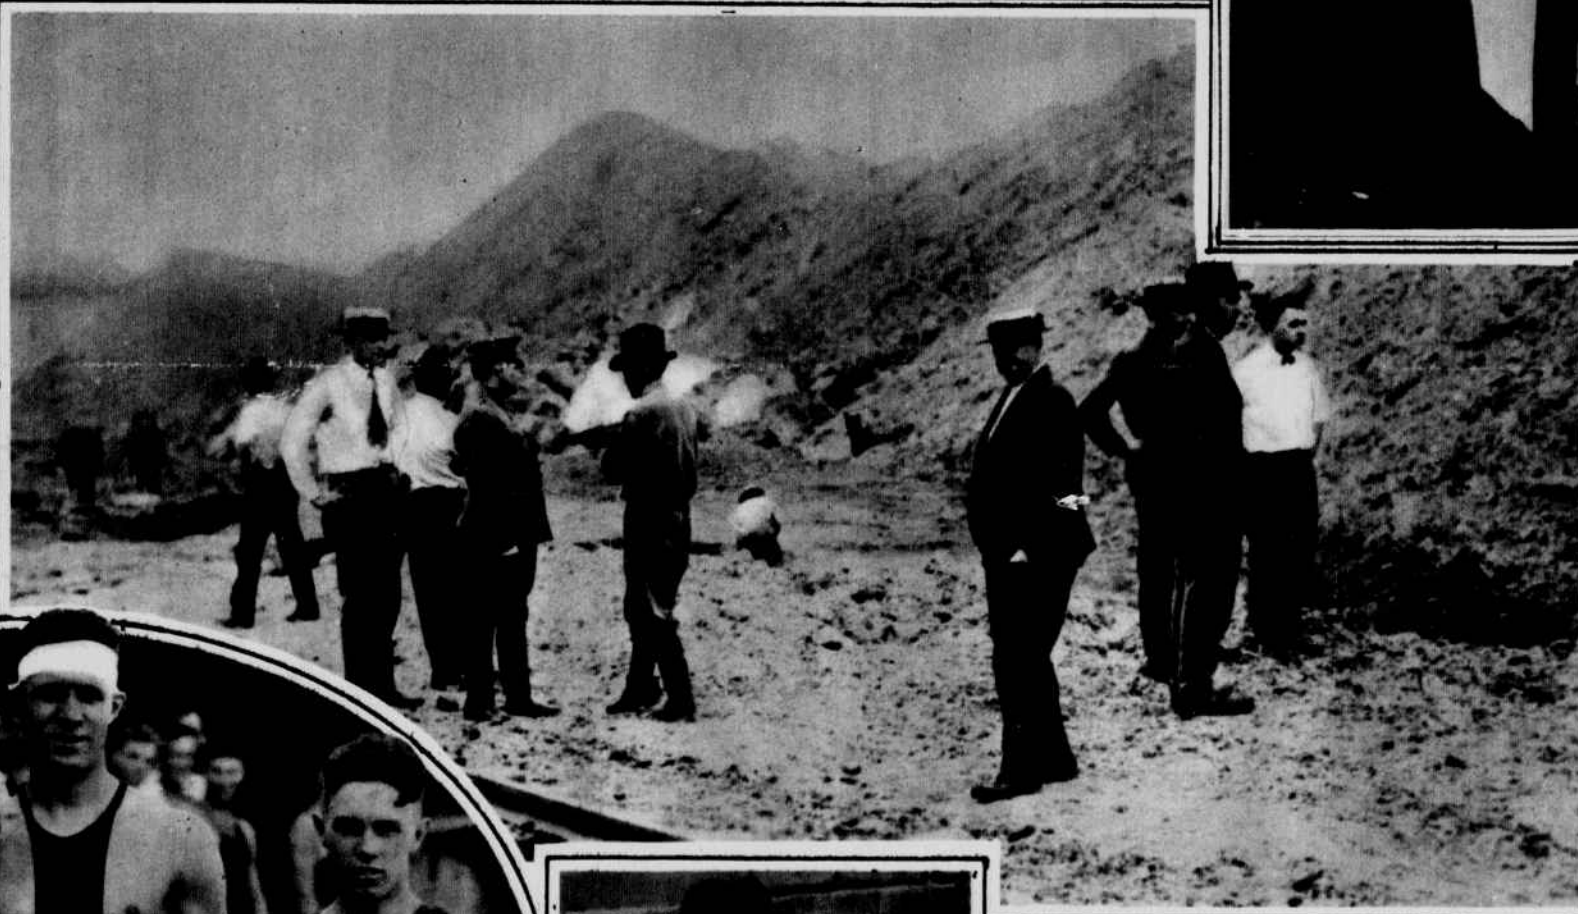

Above—The Prince of Wales and Lord Louis Mountbatten in coolie costume on their recent visit to Japan.

Central News.

At right—Coach Dick Glendon, Capt. Clyde King, Coxswain L. H. Gwinn of the Navy crew which won at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., last week, establishing a new record for the course.

International.

At left — A scene from the mining district at Herrin, Ill., where riots caused the death of nearly forty persons.

Pacific & Atlantic.

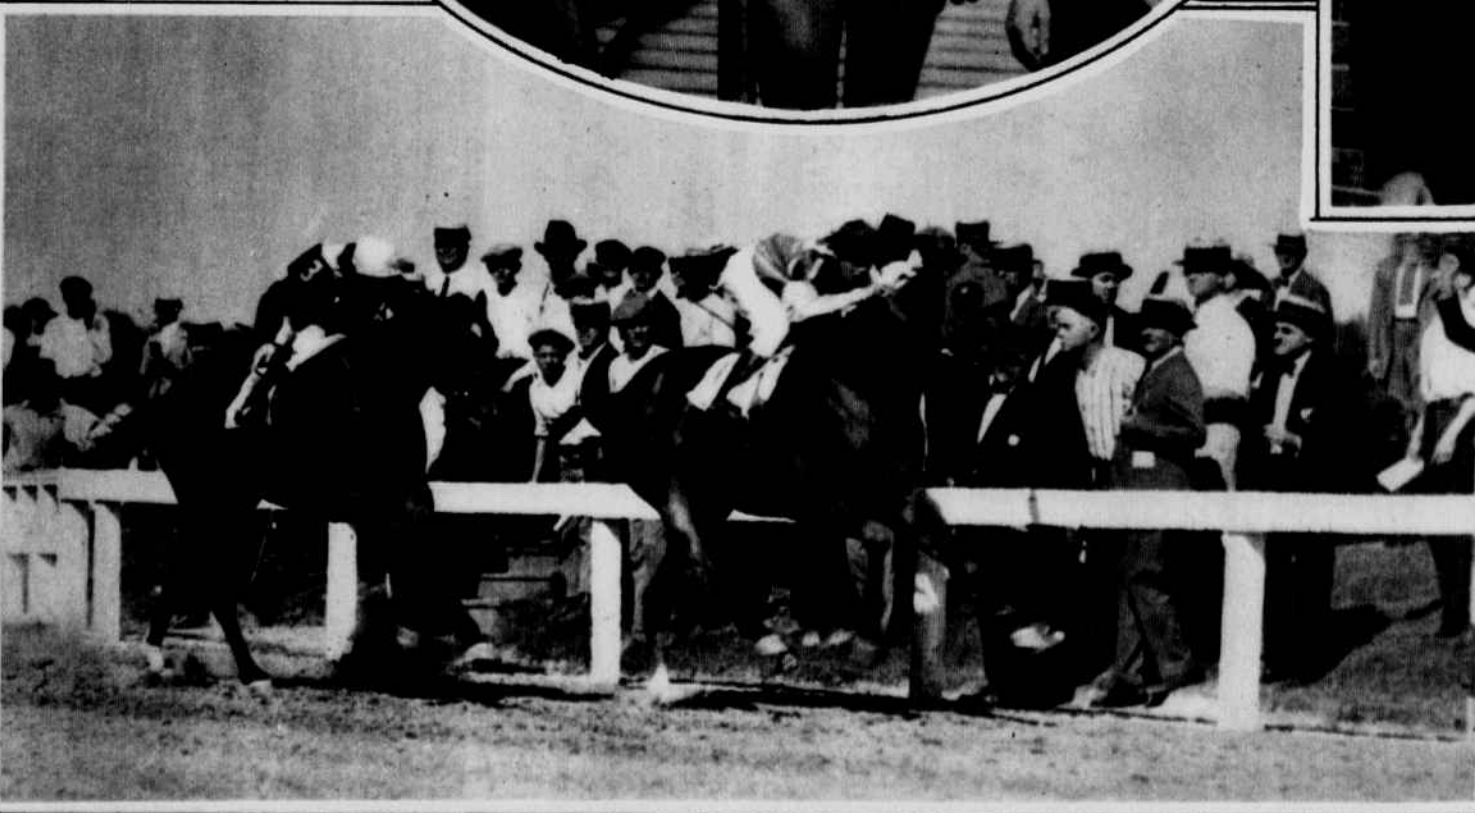

Above—Sheriff Melvin Thaxton of Herrin, Ill., whose inactivity in connection with the rioting at the mine fields has caused much criticism.

At left—Whiskaway repeats his victory over Morvich in the Kentucky Special at Latonia. Photo shows Whiskaway winning from Thibodeaux by half a length. Morvich was ten lengths back of Thibodeaux.

Left to right: Noel Druce as Dante Alighieri, Virginia Langton as Beatrice and Martha Madison as Beatrice's Page in the Dante pageant play for charity held on the estate of Mrs. Henry Villard at Dobbs Ferry, N. Y.

Keystone.

Kadel & Herbert.